

Happy Holidays from the Heisel Family 2020

This certainly has been an unusual year with COVID19 dominating our lives. Rachel bought a house in Dallas! Robbie chugs along at Kroger working hard. James is looking for jobs in these trying times. Joe graduated this December from Colorado State and will be looking for jobs as well in the coming months! Libby is a Senior and driving, college bound next fall. The puppy dogs are doing fine.

Paul (Loving his Alfa Romeo QV, Dodgers World Series WIN, NHL21, new job, new grill – cell phone 214-763-1380)

Paul changed jobs within FM Global and works for Staff Underwriting. He will stay in Frisco. Since March, he's been working at home and there is no end in sight to going back to the office. His Dodgers won the World Series and he watched every moment of it. He's had his Alfa Romeo QV for a year and is still loving his GON2PLD racecar. His next writing project is ongoing and perhaps will be ready in 2021 for the first book in a series to be released. Traveled to Colorado to get Joe, that's about it for this year. LET'S GO DODGERS!

Deb (volunteering with Libby in NCL, working in healthcare, COVID wont' go away – cell phone 214-803-0672)

Deb works at Baylor-Scott & White hospital in Plano as a clinical pharmacist and has spent the year working around COVID19 patients on the front lines – their hospital is always full. She and Libby are finishing up their volunteering with National Charity League this year. Her free time is spent reading her Kindle and enjoying shows on Netflix. No travel for her this year because of COVID19, so hoping things get somewhat normal to take a few day trips. During the summer spent time in the pool relaxing and reading.

Rachel (new house, newish stylish antique piano, Ghost of Tsushima – cell phone 214-763-1384)

Rachel bought a house! Not saying it went smoothly after she took possession as it did take 2 weeks to figure out why the house had no water (previous owner ripped out the filter system and capped off supply - DUH). Glad it was resolved. With her new house, she is buying a lovely antique piano to play on and practice. Until she bought her house in October, Rachel was working with Dad out of his house with her office upstairs. She took Robbie to Free Play for his birthday and enjoyed social distanced old school gaming consoles.

Robbie (video game kid, working at Kroger, trying new foods – cell phone 469-980-9716)

Rob, like his mom, is out in the public each day working at Kroger with his protective gear and mask. For his birthday, he discovered Ghost of Tsushima at Rachel's recommendation and is really enjoying the game. Recently he has been watching "old" movies like Citizen Kane and Blue Velvet. His love of anime increases as does his disdain for superhero movies. He is expanding his horizons by trying different foods and discovered it is not so bad, like chicken with bones in it (aka fried chicken). Or octopus. Or squid. Or eel.

James (searching for work, gaming, anime, loves all forms of chicken, cell phone 214-763-1383)

James is currently looking for jobs which has been challenging in the COVID environment as his semester of cooking classes were not held, and it doesn't look like much is changing anytime soon. After things get back to normal, perhaps he will be able to finish his schooling and move forward with the next phase of his life. He enjoys anime and watching The Mandalorian with the family. During the warmer weather he enjoyed the pool and playing with the dogs.

Joseph (movies guru, college grad! loves nature, FIFA21 – cell phone 214-620-7498)

Joe will graduate this December (remotely working from home) from Colorado State University with his degree and be on the search for jobs. His passion is for movies, screenwriting, and media – he is focused on realistically portraying people in art and shattering stereotypes. He is a consumer of movies and shows, watching them and critiquing them, figuring what could be done differently or better. He enjoys spending time with his good friends and attending Game Night on Thursdays.

Libby (fantasy reader, burgeoning watercolor artist, doing great in school, future engineer – cell phone 214-449-9097)

Libby STILL wants to be an ENGINEER! She is applying to colleges and has any number of options, and recently was accepted to Colorado School of Mines (where Dad, Grandpa Jim, and Uncle Mark went to school). We will see where she ends up going. She will have her driver's license soon and be out on the road, and she is hoping to find a summer job so she can make a few bucks. She has a passion for Bullet Journals and has her own Instagram page for it, showing her new spreads. We watched each Marvel Universe movie.

Brodie and Flynn (13 and 5 – walking in the mornings at 5AM with Paul, spoiled, Brodo Baggins and Flindar)

Brodie is getting older and spends a lot of his time moving from dog pillow to couch to front window couch, repeat until he's worn out and needs another nap. Flynn is full of energy and never stops wagging his tail. He had a medical issue this year and was given pain killers, so he stared at the wall for 30 minutes. Lord know what he saw in the Upsidedown. Both are healthy and ready for the new year!
